Coronavirus (COVID-19) Business Impact Survey

Summary of Respondent's Comments

Additional Information: Questions 7, 8, 12, 13, 15, & 18

April 3, 2020

7. What are your biggest concerns over the next 30 days?

Nearly all the respondents wrote that they were concerned about their finances in terms of revenue, cash flow, income and paying their obligations. Fifteen of the respondents directly stated that they were concerned about losing their business. However, the majority described circumstances or uncertainties that would lead in the direction of loss of business.

When it came to being concerned about the unknown, 13 respondents specifically expressed this concern. However, much like the comments on losing their business, almost all expressed concern about the unknown in the form of comments and questions. We have grouped these comments and questions into categories starting with most commented on to the least:

- Trickle-down impact of COVID-19: the demands for their business service/products depends upon the demands of their customers' service/products.
- Clients – losing, retaining, cancellations of services/products, and finding new clients when they could resume business.
- Employees – certain and potential layoffs, retaining current and hiring back laid off workers once their business is back up, employee's health, essential employees working and then getting COVID-19, morale
- Businesses – how to reinvent their business,
- Online - transitioning to online services/sales, not being able to transition to online because of the nature of the business (must see clients in person)
- Ramping back up – many expressed concerns about when, how, and if
- Government Support – available funds/loans, eligibility (solopreneurs/ sole proprietors)
- COVID-19 /Health of self, employees, families & friends
- Economy – recession, stock market (1)
- Tourism / Seasonal businesses (Spring & Summer busiest season)
- Uncertainty of length of stay at home order, etc.
- Lack of confidence in public agencies
- Concern about people in general - health, feeding people in need, the elderly
- Investments, retirement

8. What are your biggest concerns over the next 60 to 90 days?

Nearly all the respondents wrote that they were concerned about their finances in terms of revenue, cash flow, income and paying their obligations. Thirty-nine respondents directly stated that they were concerned about losing their business. However, the remainder of respondents described circumstances or uncertainties that would lead in the direction of loss of business.

When it came to being concerned about the unknown, fourteen respondents specifically expressed this concern. Much like the comments on losing their business, almost all expressed concern about the unknown in the form of comments and questions. We have grouped these comments and questions into categories starting with most commented on to the least. It is worth noting that the comments/questions were extremely similar to question 7:

- Trickle-down impact of COVID-19: the demands for their business service/products depends upon the demands of their customers' service/products.
- Clients – losing, retaining, cancellations of services/products, and finding new clients when they could resume business.
- Employees – certain and potential layoffs, retaining current and hiring back laid off workers once their business is back up, employee's health, essential employees working and then getting COVID-19, morale
- Businesses – how to reinvent their business
- Online - transitioning to online services/sales, not being able to transition to online because of the nature of the business (must see clients in person)
- Ramping back up – many expressed concerns about when, how, and if
- Government Support – available funds/loans, eligibility (solopreneurs/ sole proprietors)
- COVID-19 /Health of self, employees, families & friends
- Economy – recession, stock market (1)
- Tourism / Seasonal businesses (Spring & Summer busiest season)
